TITLES DORMANT AND TITLES IN ABEYANCE

ANCEST Baronies in the English Feerage, created only by Writ of Summons, are heritable by female heirs. A sincle daughter, it heir, inherits on the death of her father; if there he more than one daughter the Peerage "it." in the abeyance" between all the daughters equally, and extinguily so remains until the entire issue, make and female, is exhausted, of all the said daughters except of one. As soon as that hance, then the heir amongs the descendant of the ten and dagrant at once inheries. The same result sometimes occurs through the matrice of two acres. Insee are at present two small capite who if they were to marry and have a sen, would at their on the jointly leave to that sen seme half-dozen Peerages which, though now in abeyance, would then at once energe in the ordinary course.

But it is not necessary to wait for nature to extinguish rival heirs. The king can at any moment he chooses determine the abeyance in favour of any one of the coheirs merely by commanding the issue of a Writ of Summons addressed to that coheir, who at once succeeds to the old Peerage with the original precedence. This extion is taken from time to time, and consequently it becomes a matter of interest to hate who are reducts to Peerages of this character. This course was fullowed in 1913 by calling out of abeyance of the ancient baronies of Furnivall, and Latymer. But in putting forward the information in the following section of the work, the reservation must be made that some of the pedigrees which have been used have not been thoroughly tested. The notes were compiled from ordinary printed books, and in pedigrees extending over four and five centures the opportunity of error is great. Mest would need to "stand line" before the Committee for Triviages. Some of the Peerages also which have been included as in absyance rest only upon my owney or various points of peerage law, and would involve judicial decisions thereupon before they could be brought into enjoyment.

To the abeyant Pernaes various others have been added which are either dormant or under attainder. Of each of the entire, henceper, so are included herein it would tradictly be found possible to obtain a reversal of the fortuners. But the enjoyment of any Peer, we in this section involves the prior formal claim thereto, and the consequent official adjudication thereupon: and that being 80, one can leave this part of the book as no more than the attempt to collect and supplyinformation, probably accurate and doubtless of no little interest, rather than as a statement of proved and adjudicated fact which it is not, and which it would in the bulk of these cases be wholly impossible to put forward.

The Editor would welcome any additions or corrections to this part of the work.

In that case the Barony has devolved upon the present Lord De La Warr.

BRIEF VIEW OF TITULAR DISTINCTIONS AND TERMS RELATING TO RANKS

In the following pages is a summary of description, in alphabetical order, of the various ranks which confer titles upon in hydrals; together with a brief account of a few terms which frequently occur in the personal memoirs of each possessor of these unanties :-

daughters, the abeyance is terminated in favour of the survivor, and she becomes a Baroness in her own right. By the favour of the Crown, on the other hand, any co-heir may be selected, and the barony revived in his or her person, the co-heir so selected being summoned by writ, and taking precedence as if sole heir.

ARCHBISHOPS. The highest dignity in the Church is that of "netropolitan prelate" or archbishop. He exercises control over Bishops : and the limit of his archiepiscopal jurisdiction is called "a province," of which there are two in hitherto two in Ireland (Dublin and Armagh). But in addition to these functions, he has the actual care of a diocese, in which he performs all the duties of a suffragan prelate, owing obedience, however, only to the Crown and the Parliament. The Archbishep of Canterbury can issue licences for marriages to be solemnized at any time or place; and in has the power of granting degrees like those of a University.

or felony, when just ment has actually been pronounced, raders a man "attant, attretus," His dignities are not only destroyed in his own person, but their further descent arrested. The obstruction of an attaint may be removed by Parliament reversing judgment; and the dignity possessor of a peerage of that rank in her own is thereby revived in precisely the same condition right by descent or by creation. as if it never had been attainted.

BARON .- This, though now the lowest rank in the peerage, is the most ancient. It may be derived from a writ of summons or from letters patent. The tormer, if I illowed by an actual sitting in the House of Lords, constitutes a title heritable by heirs male and female of the body of the person surmoned. The latter always perscribes the course of a scent in express words. Both these and of Burns are in expression; but formerly another class drew their honours from the 1 - - non of certain I tale. I. "Baronies by tenure" are obsolete, though many heirs of such taties exist, possessing baronies by writ or t deat.

DARONAIS.—This Order of the persons was founded in Engaged by Jacob I. Ichly in period, dates its origin to make it the First and Ireland, to permet the period of the period dates its origin to make the first and a sounds for the same kind, lober and a sounds for the same kind, lober and a sounds for the same kind, lober and a sounds for the advancement of X v. 8 that if the Laborator has the v. ABEYANCE .- When the possessor of a barony James, who sought to recruit his finances by which had been created by writ of summons, the condition amiexed to the title of paying dies without issue tade, his daugiters besome into the Exchequer about 11095, baing oscinsibly his "co-heirs," and the barony fels into "above three years pay of thirty soldiers at ch. a lay ance " amongst them. In this condition it perman. The institution of the Order in Sociland will remain—unenjoyed by any of them, yet was connected with a swheme for colonizing undestroyed—until death or the favour of the Nova Socia, and down to 1638 he patents Crown 'terminates the abeyance.' By the contained a grant of land as that colony, though death of all the daughters except one, and the it had before that date passed into the possession extinction of any direct descendants of these of the French. The dignaty in modern times has always been created by patent, in which the course of its descent is prescribed—usually to the heir male of the body of the first grantee. Many patents, previous to 1827, contained a clause, under which the eldest son of a Baronet may claim Knighthood on coming of ago. The rank of Baronet is a "necessary" addition to the name in all cases, and has to be written in full in official sign tures. The abbreviation "Bt." (not "bart.") is permissible in ordinary BISHOP.-Every Bishop must have been in England (Canterbury and York), and have been priest's orders, must be at least thirty years of age, must be born in lawful wedlock, and must be recommended by the Crown to the dean and chapter by whom he is elected. Each new Bishop is "consecrated;" but when a prelate Dishops a consecrated; but when a prelate is removed from one see to another the process is called "translation." The majority of the Bishops have no seats in the House of Lords, being Prelates of Scotland or Ireland, or Colonial or Missionary Bishops. Of the English and Welsh Prelates, the two Archbishops, the Bishops ATTAINDER .- A capital conviction for treason of London, Durham, and Winchester, and 21 of the remaining 30 Bishops, sit as spiritual peers, the eight junior Bishops being excluded. The Bishop of Sodor and Man has a seat but no vote.

Countess .- The wife of an Earl, or the female

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER,—This Order was instituted by Royal Warrant dated 6th September, 1886, for the purpose of adequately rewarding the distinguished services of commi found officers of the Naval and Military services who have been honourably mentioned in despatches. It is to consist of the Sovereign and Companions.

Denmant,-A title which is vested de ure, but is not claimed or assumed, or the right to which established by od. 1 tyl I domaid. Titles, not being within the statute of limitations. can be claimed at any distance of time and cannot be lost by or iso.

BARONETS .- This Order of tub I to room was DURE .- This, the his best rank in the British and he was the first to cooke an Lughsh Duke. This Order of hobblity heappeared wholly in 1572 by the extinction of the heirs of all upon whom it had been conterred, or by the attender of the remaining posses of the title; the first peer subsequently reased to this rank was Ludovic Stuart, Duke of Richmond, 17th May, 1623. There are at present only two Dukedones in Ireland, those of Leinster and Abercorn, besides the Royal Dukedom of Connaught.

EARL.-The title of Earl may be traced to the Saxon earlder men, or the Domsh jorl; but its constitution as a digrity is, of course, subsequent in date to the Norman Conquest, when the designation Comes, Count, or Earl, took a prominent place in the peerage. Till the reign of Henry III this dignity, together with that of Baron, wholly constituted the nobility of the realm; and provious to that period earldoms seem in several instances to have been enjoyed, like baronies, as a con equence of the tenure of certain lands. Originally the title was derived from the name of a county, the government of which was attached to the honour; but in modera times the dignity and the duty have long been divided, and towns, villages, and country seats occasionally furnish the name of an Earl.

IMPERIAL SERVICE ORDER.-Instituted by King Edward on his Coronation, 1902, for members of the Civil Service of the Empire, to be conferred after Long and Meritorious Service.

KNIGHT BACHELOR .-- This rank is far more ancient the name of the fraternities existing under the name of Orders. By the more imposition of the Sovereign's sword on the shoulder, accompanied with the words, "Arise, Sirits privileges are conferred; and even the members of the Orders of Knighthood must all now receive this accolade before they can assume the designation of "Sir." When residence abroad prevents the personal reception of this honour, it has of late become the practice to issue letters patent granting the "style, title, and dignity of a knight" to the favoured individual. The prefix of "Sir" is exclusively English as appertaining to Knighthood, and is not necessarily borne by any Foreign keight. In Incland the Land-Lieutenant can conter the honour of Knighthood. The origin of the designation Knight Bachelor is plausibly derived by some authors from the words bas cheralier, indicating the superiority of the class of Knights Banneret who were created under the Royal standard displayed in open war.

KNIGHTS OF THE MOST HONOURABLE ORDER OF THE BATH .- The practice of creating Knights with vatious ceremones, of which bathing was one, is undoubtedly a custom of considerable antiquity; but the institution which now hours the name count to traced us a State Order, regulated by statutes and ordinances, beyond the year 1725. The close of the war led to a remodelling of its constitution in 1815, and the long continue negletic entrolured, on an lorges result in 1817. > LORDS OF SESSION .- In England the judges are usually knighted, and in Ireland they are frequently sworn in privy counselors, but in Scotland a judge of the Court of Session is styled "Lord," with the prefix "Honourable," The his estate or to his patronymic: of the former practice Lord Ardwall attords an instance-of the latter Lord Guthrie is an example. In the case of the heads of the court, however, the Lord Justice General and the Lord Justice Clerk, the title is not officially used, except during the ceremony of first taking seat upon the beach. By Royal Warrant of Feb. 3, 1905, Lords of Session are permitted to retain their title on retirement, and their wives are also granted the title of "Lady," to be retained during widowhood.

LORDS SPIRITUAL .- The Bishops collectively in their legislative capacities are called Lords Spiritual, as the other members of the House of Peers are called Lords Temporal.

MARQUESS.—This title was unknown in England till Richard II created a Marquess of Dublin. It is said to derive its origin from the word Marchio, Lord Marcher, whose duty it was to guard the Welsh and Scottish frontiers, which were called Marches. Till of late years it occurred very sparingly in the lists of Peers and even at present it furnishes the smallest number of any rank in the nobility.

ORDER OF THE CROWN OF INDIA was instituted to commemorate the assumption by Queen Victoria of the title of Empress of India. To consist of the Sovereign, Princesses of the Royal and Imperial House, the wives or other female relatives of Indian princes, and of other Indian ladies the Sovereign may think fit; and also of the wives or other female relatives of any of the persons who have held, now hold, or may hereafter hold the offices of Vicerov of India and Governor-General of India, Governor of of State for India.

MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER .- The year 1348 is that usually assigned as the date of the institution of this fraternia. Papal r tradition attributes its foundation to the accident of a lady's garter being the fed up by Illiward III at a court festival, when he checked the soit qui mal y pense, and permanent'y convented a trivial accident into a surce of logour and distinction by founding a fraternity of Knights with that motto and the decoration of an enbroidered garter. This Association, crimally known as "The Honourable Society of the Bareneta to," was formed at a Meeting to which the whole of the Baronetage were invited, on January 26, 18:8; the Society was dissolved on February 20, 1903, and re-constituted under its present title

The Standing Council was estat is ned as an organization of a permanent character to deal with all affairs connected with the here he ry Hogree, and afford to the members thereof means of intercommunication. Its principal objects are :-

1. To obtain the propagation of an accurate Roll of the Baronetage, and to see that the same is properly kept

In a similar way, invitations were issued to the subsequent Coronation Services at St. Paul's Cathedral, and to attend the funeral of King Edward VII at St. George's Chapel, Windsor.

For many years no difference was made in the lists recording Bur nets and Knights who attended the Drawing-Rooms and Lavee held during the ream of Queen Victoria, but owing to the reoresentations of the Standing Council, a separate list of Baroners attending Courts and Levees is now issued from the L rd Chamberlain's Other.

A considerable time before the formation of the Standing Council and its predecessor, invitations to Court were issued to many persons describing them as Bureacets merely on their own personal descriptions as such, and persons were gazetted even to commissions in the Army and Navy as Baronets without any proof having been required as to their right to so an impact themselves. Oning, however, to representations made to the Lord Chamberlain, much greater care is now exercised in this direction.

As the result of a Petition to King Edward VII, a Committee, presided over by the Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, was appointed November 3, 1005, by Mr. Akors-Douglas, the He me Secretary, to inquire whether any, and if so what steps should be taken to enforced the status of the blan met-The Committee took evidence from Garter, Lyon, and Ulster Kings of Arms, from baronets and other representatives of the Standing Council of the Paronetage, in cluding Admiral Sir Lambiton Loraine, Baronet, the then Chairman of the Executive Committee of this Association, and Mr. Francis W. This Committee issued its Report on December 12, 1906, and amongst other surgestions recommended the formation of a Roll to be in the custody of an Official of the Home Office, and on February 8, 1910, a Royal Warrant was issued under the late King's Sign Manual, prescribing that an Official Roll of Baronets should be prepared, in consultation with Sign Manual, prescribing that an Order Aron of Indicate about the Garter, Lyen, and Utter Kin. Registrar. Mr. R. F. Reynard, I.S.O., also of the Home Office, is Deputy Registrar.

The preparation of the draft of the first Roll was entrusted to Mr. F. W. Pixley, and this draft Roll was, in 1910, lodged with the Secretary of State for the Home Department. After being under the consideration of the Home Office Officials in consultation with the three Kings of Arms (Garter, Lyon, or Ulster), according to their respective heraldic jurisdiction, in regard to the validity of the Baronetcies named therein for upwards of three years the tirst Roll was issued as a supplement to the London Gazette of February 20, 1914, on February 23.

The Royal Warrant also prescribed that the Roll shall be revised and corrected from time to time and shall be submitted to the reigning Monarch once in each year, and shall be published annually in the London. Edinburgh, and Dublin Gazettes and placed on sale.

A Committee of the Privy Council was subsequently appointed by order in Council of March 5, 1910, to hear appeals from any persons excluded from the Roll, and the following are the present Members of such Committee: The Lord President, The Earl Marshal and Hereditary Marshal of Ergland, The Tork Brunch and the Fall of State for the Home September 1, 12 A 1 and St. Aldaya, The Le Lord Brunch and the Earl Aldaya, The Lord Brunch and the State for the Home Department, The Right Hon, C. Maxwell, Bt., The Right Hon, Sir Robert Romer, The Right Hon, Sir James Stirling, The Earl of Desart, The Right Hon. The Lord Strathclyde, and The Right Hon. Sir Henry Primrose.

Several Petitions were heard by the Committee before the first Roll was issued and one since. Although several claimants to Baronetcies have announced their intention of formally applying to be placed on the Roll there are not at present any claims waiting to be dealt with.

All communications relating to the Standing Council of the Europetage should be addresed to the Registrar, Mr. Francis Pixley, F.S.A., who will be pleased to supply any further particulars that may be desired.

In addition to its own It III of Knighthood, the said ty has made arrangements to register at the College of Arms every duly authenticated Knighthood.

A question which has been put f gward by many Knights Bachelor is one relating to an application to the Sovereign for the restoration of the ladge or instgnia to lo worm on State or grand occasions. Henry VIII decreed for Knights Bachelor the collar of SS, and ordered its use to be restricted to the degree of a Kni nt.

The collar, as modified by the Tudor Sovereigns, was to consist of a series of the letter S, alternating with the portcullis, either bried together or set in close order on a blue-and-white ribl on, and having for a pendant or jewel a .u. v lt ... The above-mentione I decree cours it. Act 24, Henr v VIII, cap. 13, which was male for the reformation of apparent. This Act was in its entirety reported by James I, and so trade by actionally, but no less surely, was extincted the right of Kennik Bachelor to want the Tair Thom, rill an and collar. In the year 1927 King Chafass I was need that the Baronets and the Knights Bachelor might be allowed a distinctive riband and badge. The matter was referred to and favourably reported upon by the College of Arms, and the Attorney-General (Sir Robert Heath) received a command from the King concerning it. From the troubles, however, which shortly afterwards ar -e in the kingdom. His Majesty's intentions do not appear to have been carried into effect.

It is proposed, as soon as the membership of the Society shows that it thoroughly represents the Knights Bachelor of the Empire, to present a petition to His Majesty, praying him to graciously consider the question above referred to, so that they may be permitted to wear a badge or insidua as they did in ancient lays; but the Council feel that the membership of the Secrety fulther than it over 500, and representing the existing majority of those upon whom the honour has been conferred) must still be largely increased before any application is formally made. The present absence of any distinctive bades to be worn at Supa or pulse functions is greatly felt by Kennats Buchelor, particularly so in Inuse, viers both c. coals have to attend numerous State coromonies.

It is, therefore, evident that the attainment of the more important of the objects which the (cuncil has under con . lerays . . 1 . . et at lent upon the Society rooms of the support of the great m. j raty of those on whom the hencur of Knighthood has been conferred, and the Council trust that the rank see a great number of the Kindhis and are not yet numbers of the Society entered in the Roll and registered at the College of Arms twice the end of the present year.

The Registry and Library of the Secrety are at 2 Mitre Court, London, E.C.4, and env of the Officers will be pleased to advise on questions relating to Heraldry, grants of Arms, etc.

A JOURNAL FOR MEN AND WOMEN.

Founded in 1874 by the great Victorian Journalist, Edmund Yates.

EVERY TUESDAY.

PRICE SIXPENCE.

Controlling Editor-WEST F. de WEND-FENTON.

THE WORLD'S distinguished and established audience of the Court, Society, the Country Flouses, the Clubs and Regimental Messes, enables it to give just that intimate and authoritative value to its comment and criticism which is so valuable and so rare in modern journalism.

THE WORLD is an excellent foil to the flippant and "vain repetitions" of mere camera journalism, and for those who really care to think and talk sanely on current topics of real moment.

THE WORLD contains the most exhaustive and reliable Court and Society chronicles and comment. Vigorous and terse political articles purged of dulness and conventional stock opinions and phrases.

SPENDING POWER.

ADVERTISERS need to get to close quarters with people having money to spend, and not those whose expenditure necessarily ends with the purchase of the paper in which their advertisement appears.
